Scholarship Criteria: (must meet #1; all other criteria will be factors considered in selection of the scholarship recipients)

1. Current enrollment in the Doctor of Jurisprudence Program or a Masters of Law (LL.M.) Program at an accredited law school located within the United States of America.
2. Cumulative law school GPA and class rank.
3. Previous experience (full-time or part-time job, summer clerkship or internship) working in, or with, one or more state or local governments or in the public finance area.
4. Expectation of practicing in municipal law or public finance law upon graduation from law school.

Scholarships Awards:

1. There will be up to five scholarships awarded to qualified applicants. The National Association of Bond Lawyers (NABL) reserves the right to award fewer than five scholarships. Through a donation from the American College of Bond Counsel, one of the five scholarships has been designated for a diverse candidate. (“Diverse” as defined by the American Bar Association, includes “minorities, women, persons with disabilities, and persons of differing sexual orientations and gender identities.”)
2. Each scholarship will include (a) waiver of the enrollment fee to The Essentials: 2024 conference scheduled to be held April 10-12, 2024, at the Courtland Grand Hotel in Atlanta, GA, (b) complimentary hotel lodging (checking in on April 10 and checking out on April 12) at the Courtland Grand, (c) reimbursement of roundtrip airfare (not including any checked baggage fees) at coach/economy class rates for nonrefundable fares booked no less than 14 days prior to the departure date, and (d) reimbursement of ground transportation to, and from, the scholarship recipient’s departing airport and to, and from, the Atlanta airport (limited to the cost of taxi service). Reimbursement for the items listed in clauses (c) and (d) must be made on a form provided by NABL, and receipts for paid expenses must accompany requests for reimbursement. Requests for reimbursement must be submitted within 30 days of incurring the expense, and requests for reimbursement not submitted to NABL within this time frame will not be paid.
3. You can view The Essentials 2024 information here.
